

LOOK!

Maurice Prendergast,
Boats in Harbor, c. 1918

ASK!

What's going on in this picture?

In 1918, when this picture was painted, people were just starting to work less than 7 days a week. This meant for the first time people did things just for fun on their days off, we call that LEISURE time. Can you imagine going to school 7 days a week?!

ANSWER!

What LEISURE activities do you think people took part in nearly 100 years ago? Why?
